Annual Transfer of Grade Medical Officers – 2013 (Noted List)

The following Grade Medical Officers are noted for Annual Transfer 2013 by 31.12.2012 as they have already completed / will be completing four years of service in their present stations. Officers who have reported on or before 31.12.2009 will be noted for transfers under the Annual Transfers 2013. Stations mentioned against their names will be falling vacant with effect from 01/01/2013. (You can reach this list of Annual Transfer 2013 of Grade Medical Officers in the Ministry of Health website www.health.gov.lk)

Names of Medical Officers who have reported by post intern appointments, North and East transfers, Special appeal transfers and special list transfers within the year 2009, are also been included in this list. But if they wish to stay in their present stations till completion of 04 years, they should appeal to do so. If Medical Officers with completion of age 53+ or 54+ as well as 59+ years on 15.08.2012, who wish to stay in their present stations, they also should appeal to do so. Those who do not appeal to stay will be considered for transfer and new station will be assigned.

Medical Officers who are on temporary attachments after PGIM training programmes should also apply for Annual transfers.

All Heads of institutions and Medical officers are kindly requested to inform of any omissions/corrections in the noted list on or before 03.09.2012 to the following address.
